

Aotearoa, nō te katoa

2019 Hook Line and Sing-a-long winning song

Lucy Summerfield ©2019

Intro (riff) x 2

Verse One

C F C
Korowai of stars across the night
C F C
Southern Cross that burns so bright
C F C
The fraying edge of pounamu land
C F C
Coarse blankets of golden sand

Chorus

F G C
Can you feel the ground beneath your fingertips?
F G C
Can you taste the salt upon your lips?
F G C F
Is there a reflection of mountains in your eyes?
F G C
Aotearo-o-o-oo, nō te katoa (riff x 2)

Verse Two

C F C
Rivers that unfurl like ferns
C F C
Clear blue as a wave turns
C F C
The tui call across the dawn
C F C
Clip of shears as a sheep is shorn

F G C
Can you feel the ground beneath your fingertips?
F G C
Can you taste the salt upon your lips?

Our winning songwriter for 2019
Lucy Summerfield (Y10, Motueka High School)

Strum pattern

F G C F
Is there a reflection of mountains in your eyes?

F G C
Aotearo-o-o-oo, nō te katoa (riff x 2)

Verse Three

C F C
Knife-edged mountain ridges

C F C
Gorges crossed by swing bridges

C F C
Tall kauri and kōwhai bloom

C F C
An upside-down man in the moon

Chorus

F G C
Can you feel the ground beneath your fingertips?

F G C
Can you taste the salt upon your lips?

F G C F
Is there a reflection of mountains in your eyes?

F G C
Aotearo-o-o-oo, nō te katoa

Bridge

F G C
Small island nation, full of sensations

F G C
Open your eyes what can you see?

F G C
The perfect location, here's your invitation

F G C
Open your eyes what can you see?

Chorus (rubato ad lib - 1 strum each chord)

F G C
Can you feel the ground beneath your fingertips?

F G C
Can you taste the salt upon your lips?

F G C F
Is there a reflection of mountains in your eyes?

F G C
Aotearo-o-o-oo, nō te katoa