

Aotearoa, nō te katoa

Hook, Line and Sing-a-long winner 2019

Lucy Summerfield

♩ = 180

C F C F

5 C F C C

1. Ko ro - wai of stars ac - ross the night Southern Cross that burns
2. Rivers that un - furl like ferns Cle - ar blue as

10 F C C F C

so bright The fraying edge of pou - na - mu land a wave turns The tu - i call a - cross the dawn

16 C F C F

coa - rse blan - kets of gol - den sand Can you feel the Clip of shears as a sheep is shorn

21 G C F G C

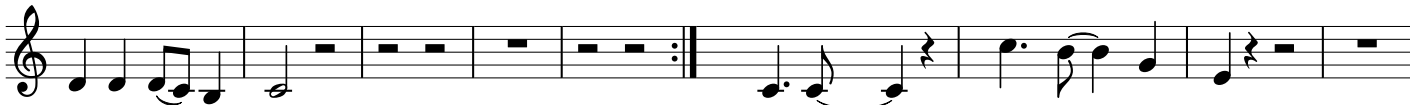

ground be - neath your fin - ger - tips? Can you taste the salt up - on your lips?

27 F G C F

Is there a ref - lec - tion of moun - tains in your eyes? Ao - te - a - ro -

33 G C F F C F C

a, nō te ka - toa Knife - edged mountain rid - ges

42 C F C C F

gor - ges crossed by swing brid - ges Tall kau - ri and kō - whai bloom

48 C C F C F
 An up-side down man in the moon Can you feel the ground be-neath your fin-ger-tips? Can you taste the salt up-on your lips?

55 G C F G C

61 F G C F C
 Is there a ref - lec-tion of moun-tains in your eyes Ao - te - a - ro -

67 G C F G C
 a, nō te ka - toa Small Is-land Nat-ion full of sen - sa-tions

74 F F G
 O - pen your eyes what can you see? The perfect lo - cat - ion

80 C F G C
 here's your in - vi - ta - tion O - pen your what can you see?

85 Rubato ad lib F G C
 Can you feel the ground be-neath your fin-ger-tips? Can you

90 F G C F G6
 taste the salt up-on your lips? Is there a ref - lec-tion of moun - tains in your eyes? Ao - te - a - ro - a, nō te ka - to - a

96 C F G C