

ŌTEPOTI EDUCATORS CHOIR

Come along and sing yourself into the weekend!

Join us for the inaugural Ōtepoti Educators Choir
(official name to be decided)

Led by Ben Madden and supported by Natasha Manowitz

Our aim is to sing together for wellbeing and the joy of creating music. We will learn new waiata, sing old favourites, practise vocal warm ups and much more. All educators, support staff, and people associated with education welcome. No singing/choir experience needed!
